

Prob 12 (Rev. 11/1/2004)

United States District Court for the

DISTRICT OF MINNESOTA

United States v. Adnan Abdihamid Farah

Docket No. 0864 0:15CR00049-003(MJD)

Petition on Supervised Release

COMES NOW Brian S. James, U.S. PROBATION OFFICER OF THE COURT, presenting an official report upon the conduct and attitude of Adnan Abdihamid Farah who was sentenced for Conspiracy to Provide Material Support to a Designated Foreign Terrorist Organization on November 15, 2016, by the Honorable Michael J. Davis, who fixed the period of supervision at 20 years supervised release, and imposed the general terms and conditions theretofore adopted by the Court and also imposed special conditions to include:

- The defendant shall reside for a period of up to 365 days in a residential reentry center as approved by the probation officer and shall observe the rules of that facility, which may include location monitoring with Global Positioning System (GPS) technology. The defendant may be restricted to their residence at all times except for employment; education; religious services; medical; substance abuse; or mental health treatment; court obligations; or discretionary leave activities as approved by the probation officer. The defendant shall not be required to pay the costs of location monitoring.

On August 24, 2024, the above condition was modified to a reduced program as defined by the following:

The defendant shall remain at their residence every day during set hours as directed by the probation officer.

RESPECTFULLY PRESENTING PETITION FOR ACTION OF COURT FOR CAUSE AS FOLLOWS:

SPECIAL CONDITION: The remainder of the defendant's term of home detention with location monitoring, utilizing global positioning system (GPS) technology, may be reduced to the following restrictions: The defendant shall remain at their residence every day during set hours as directed by the probation officer.

The defendant failed to follow directives regarding this condition on multiple dates, including failure to be at his residence during designated times, and failure to follow instructions related to charging his device.

SPECIAL CONDITION: The defendant shall participate in a mental health counseling program as approved by the probation officer. This program may include psychological/psychiatric counseling or treatment, family counseling, and mentor support.

The defendant failed to comply with mental health therapy as originally recommended.
